

Accessible books
for every life,
every reader,
every day.

Georgia Library Service for the blind and print disabled

Be independent. Be inspired.

Georgia Library Service (GLS) for the Blind and Print Disabled provides accessible reading materials for people with disabilities.

- Get free reading materials in accessible formats.

Enjoy books and magazines in audio, braille, and large print plus accessible ebooks, international language titles, music materials, and audio described movies.

- Easy to enroll for all ages and abilities.

Available to anyone who is unable to read standard print due to a visual, physical, or reading disability - including students, seniors, and Veterans.

Learn more about GLS services.

Request an Outreach Librarian visit for your library, senior center, or community event.

glsoutreach@georgialibraries.org

gls@georgialibraries.org

1-800-248-6701

gls.georgialibraries.org

Accessible reading for everyone.

Georgia Library Service (GLS) for the Blind and Print Disabled removes reading barriers and helps you achieve your goals.

■ Connect with the stories you love and the information you need.

Get easy access to resources and keep reading your way.
Download to your smart device or request delivery by mail.

■ Connect with community.

Join engaging in-person and virtual programs including peer-support groups, book clubs, and technology classes.

Get personalized help and answers to questions from expert Reader Advisors at 1-800-248-6701.

gls@georgialibraries.org

gls.georgialibraries.org

Georgia Library Service (GLS) for the Blind and Print Disabled programs are made possible by a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act.