Libraries Without Walls

Empowering Access, Inspiring Innovation

Join this program, brought to you by the Bureau of Services for Blind Persons' Braille and Talking Book Library and the Michigan Department of Education Low Incidence Outreach, to introduce you to various adaptive technologies and help you gain an understanding of the skills needed to successfully use them.

The Keynote address will be given by Michael May, Executive Director of the Seattle Lighthouse for the Blind. Attendees will then choose breakout sessions that meet their individual needs. Sessions include:

- Mac Computing
- What's new in Jaws
- Victor Stellar
- Microsoft Narrator with Magnification
- And more!
